

CONTENTS

Preface to first edition	ix	3 RITUAL	52
Preface to second edition	xi	Ritual, play, and performance	52
1 WHAT IS PERFORMANCE STUDIES?	1	Varieties of ritual	52
Introducing this book, this field, and me	1	Sacred and secular	53
The boxes	1	Structures, functions, processes, and experiences	56
What makes performance studies special	1	How ancient are rituals?	57
Multiple literacies and hypertexts	4	Eleven themes relating ritual to performance studies	57
Performance studies here, there, and everywhere	5	Rituals as action, as performance	57
Is performance studies an independent field?	11	Human and animal rituals	59
The Victor Turner connection	16	Rituals as liminal performances	66
The Centre for Performance Research and PSi	19	Communitas and anti-structure	70
Northwestern's brand of performance studies	19	Ritual time/space	71
The "inter" of performance studies	22	Transportations and transformations	72
Ethical questions	23	Asemo's initiation	73
Conclusion	26	Social drama	75
Talk about	26	The pig-kill dancing at Kurumugi	77
Perform	27	The efficacy—entertainment dyad	79
Read	27	Origins of performance: If not ritual, then what?	80
		Changing rituals or inventing new ones	81
2 WHAT IS PERFORMANCE?	28	Using rituals in theatre, dance, and music	83
What is "to perform"?	28	Conclusion	87
Performances	28	Talk about	88
Bill Parcells wants you to perform	30	Perform	88
Eight kinds of performance	31	Read	88
Restoration of behavior	34	4 PLAY	89
Caution! Beware of generalizations	36	The joker in the deck	89
"Is" and "as" performance	38	What is play? What is playing?	91
Maps "as" performance	40	Some qualities of playing	92
Make belief and make-believe	42	Seven ways to approach play	93
Blurry boundaries	44	Types of playing	93
The functions of performance	45	Play acts, play moods	95
Conclusion	49	Flow, or experiencing playing	97
Talk about	51	Transitional objects, illusions, and culture	98
Perform	51	The ethological approach to play	99
Read	51	The message, "This is play"	102
		Bateson's Othello	103
		Playing blood rites	105
		Philosophies of play	106

CONTENTS

The bias against play	112	7 PERFORMANCE PROCESSES	221
Maya–lila	113	The earliest performances	221
Deep play, dark play	118	Performance process as a time–space sequence	225
Conclusion	121	Proto-performance	225
Talk about	121	A note on “text”	227
Perform	121	Training	228
Read	122	Imitation as a way of acquiring performance knowledge	232
5 PERFORMATIVITY	123	Workshop	233
A term hard to pin down	123	Rehearsal	236
Austin’s performative	123	Warm-up	239
Searle’s speech acts	125	Public performance	240
Reality TV and beyond	126	Larger events and contexts	244
Postmodernism	129	Cooldown	245
Simulation	133	Aftermath	246
Poststructuralism/deconstruction	141	Rules, proto-performance, and public performance	249
The diffusion of poststructuralism	147	The performance quadrilogue	250
Problems with poststructuralism	148	From performance montage to desktop theatre	255
Constructions of gender	151	Experimental in one context, ordinary in another	260
Constructions of race	154	Conclusion	261
During, before, and after performance art	158	Talk about	262
What the Gravedigger knew about the performative	167	Perform	262
Conclusion	167	Read	262
Talk about	168	8 GLOBAL AND INTERCULTURAL PERFORMANCES	263
Perform	168	Globalization’s throughline	263
Read	168	Scenarios of globalization	265
6 PERFORMING	170	Cultural impositions and appropriations	268
The broad spectrum of performing	170	Jihad/terrorism as performance	270
From total acting to not acting	174	Is globalization good or bad?	279
Realistic acting	176	Colonial mimicry	284
Brechtian acting	180	Tourist performances: Leisure globalization	286
Codified acting	183	The Olympics: Globalism’s signature performance	291
Codified acting and the avant-garde	188	Vertical transculturalism	296
Codified acting, ritual, charisma, and presence	190	Horizontal interculturalism	298
Trance performing	192	Integrative interculturalism	304
Trance performing and shamanism	198	Border wars	310
Masks, puppets, and other performing objects	203	From the global to social theatre	316
Hybrid acting	205	Conclusion	321
Performing in everyday life	206	Talk about	325
Trials and executions as performance	211	Perform	325
Surgery as performance	214	Read	325
Belief in the role one is playing	215	References	326
How realistic is realistic acting?	218	Index	341
Conclusion	220
Talk about	220
Perform	220
Read	220		